GREENBACKERS BREAKING RANKS.

The Greenback craze has spent its greatest force and is now on the decline. The October elections not only prove this, but the reports from all sections of the country firmly indicate that the Greenback bubble is ready to burst. Why this should be so is not difficult to understand. The more men of firm good sense, of ordinary intelligence, study the question of flat money, the more they look into the subject of inflation, or examine into the evil effects of repudiation, the more ashamed they become of the movement, and thousands are deserting the Greenback ranks. There is not a single point in the creed of the fintists which is tenable. The experience of mankind, the history of this country, the teachings of common sense, knock to the winds the theory of the Greenback movement. Since the campaign began men who were inclined to believe in the cry of "more money," who faintly saw in the Greenback platform a remedy for hard times, have been wise enough to read both sides of the question, and to hear them discussed, and the result is they are leaving the company of the fintists and are joining the great army of honest money men. In Ohio, the vote was hardly one half of what Greenbackers expected. Last year they commanded 9,076 in Cincinnati, but this year the number had dwindled down to 501. In Indiana, they counted on fully 75,000 votes, but got 30,000 only. In Iowa, the fintists and the Democrats were united a strong opposition to the Republicans, and with such a combination expected to sweep the State, they did not elect a single State officer, and elected only two out of nine Congressmen.

In Wisconsin, the Greenbackers are growing weaker. They see their theories won't bear discussion. They begin to see that an inflated currency won't help business that it won't give the workingman more flour, or meat, or clothing for a day's work, that it won't make farming more profitable, and that the Government breaking faith with its creditors would be a disgrace. For these reasons thousands of Republicans who were deluded by the cry of Greenbackism, are returning to their old political home, and are enthusiastic for the success of honest financial principles. Also many Democrats who are disgusted with the weakness of their party—a party which sells its principles and betters its fate for the hope of success—are joining hands with the Republicans in the fight for sound money. This disaffection is not confined to Wisconsin, but it is taking root in other States. It is noticeable everywhere. We see it in Janesville; it is seen in other parts of Rock county, as well as in the great cities of the East.

The signs of the times are that Greenbackism can go no further; that as a political organization it will soon cease to exist, for it can have no possible excuse for an existence; that the Democratic party will meet its death through cypher dispatches and its adultery with fintism.

A REMARKABLE CHANGE.

For seven or eight years past the New York Sun has been the most bitter and uncompromising Democratic newspaper in this country. There seemed to be no limit to its hatred of General Grant and Republicans generally; and it could scarcely find adjectives enough in the language with which to express its contempt for President Hayes and the Elector bill. It overreached all other Democratic newspapers in hurling invectives at the Republican party. There was no let-up to its cry of "fraud." Six times a week and every week in the year, its columns were teeming with railings against the Administration, and against every prominent Republican in the land. Its pet was the Democratic party, for which its praise was almost boundless. But a mighty change has taken place in

THE FEVER.

The Situation in and Around Memphis—Total Deaths at New Orleans.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 14.—Among the prominent dead of to-day are R. C. Manuel, Sergeant of Police, who has been the most active of all the members of the force.

To attempt anything of a graphic or actual portrayal of the state of affairs, or the effect upon the City of Memphis of the fearful visitation of the plague and of death's sad havoc, baffles the mind in its efforts to do anything like justice to the subject. The situation at this time presents many marked reasons why we should indulge in the most sanguine hopes of a speedy termination of the fever. A sure and steady decline is seen daily from the physicians' and Howard visitors' reports. The plague has been so long riddling our city of some of its best people, that it has, in your correspondent's opinion, done its worst. Its fury has been spent.

The Board of Health report thirty-four deaths for the past twenty-four hours, which includes fifteen who died beyond the corporation line.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 14.—The weather is clear and pleasant. Deaths, 20; cases reported, 183. Total deaths, 3,519; total cases, 11,720.

ROAD AGENTS.

Capture of Highwaymen in Iowa—Fight in the Black Hills—Recovery of Some Plunder.

DENVER, Colo., October 14—Douglas Goodale, son of a wealthy and highly respected citizen of Atlantic, this State, was arrested at his father's residence in that place, on Sunday, as one of the highwaymen that robbed a Black Hills stage-coach a few weeks since, stealing $30,000 and killing two men. Two others of the party were caught on Plate River Saturday, and hung until they confessed, and then they were left hanging. A detective followed Goodale and arrested him on Sunday. Ten thousand dollars in money and three gold watches belonging to Goodale were found in his father's safe. Three other men, names unknown, were arrested to-day at Cedar Rapids, the State for the same crime.

DEADWOOD, D. T., Oct. 14.—A severe fight took place this afternoon at Brigand Camp, fifteen miles south of this city, between the Sheriff's posse and two road agents, in which one of the latter, Tom Price, was four times wounded, twice fatally, and is now in the hands of the authorities. His companion escaped. The Sheriff is still in pursuit, with the prospect of recovering the treasure taken from the coach September 26.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Shot-Gun Policy of the South Carolina Democrats.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 14.—Representative Rainey and Stephen A. Swails, of South Carolina, had an interview with the President to-day relative to South Carolina outrages. Swails, whose life was attempted, is a resolute man, nearly white, born North, who went to South Carolina a soldier. The president was informed of the atrocious and lawless conduct of these untried Democrats, sanctioned by Gov. Hampton and his conciliated advisers. Mr. Hayes said that he intended to do everything that the law will allow. He said that all this matter would have to go to the Attorney General for action. He seems to feel, said Mr. Swails that something must be done. Mr. Swails called the attention of the President to an editorial in the Columbia Register bidding defiance to the Federal authorities, and to a similar editorial in the Charleston News and Courier, and the President appeared to be deeply impressed with the facts set forth. Mr. Swails asked what he should tell his people at home, and the President's reply was: "Tell them that they have all the protection the law shall give."

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Two Women Killed while Returning From a Funeral—Another Badly Injured.

Special to the Milwaukee Sentinel.

APPLETON, Oct. 14.—A frightful accident occurred yesterday resulting in the death of two women and injury of another. Mr. Schindler attended a funeral in the afternoon attended by his wife, child and two other women, Miss Roudemacher and Mrs. Stark. On their way home, near the railroad crossing on Fish street, the bolt which held the left thill to the wagon came out and let the thills drop on the horse's legs. The horse became frantic when Schindler jumped out to catch hold of it, but fell and so did not succeed. The horse started to run when Mrs. Schindler and Mrs. Stark jumped out, the former striking her head upon a railroad tie or rail, killing her instantly. The latter broke both legs, and sustained other injuries, from which she died this morning. Miss Roudemacher sustained an ugly cut on one leg and some other injuries. The child escaped with some slight bruises. The horse ran a short distance, fell and broke its leg. It was the worst accident of the kind that has happened in this vicinity.

FIRE.

Special to the Gazette.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Hoar & Co., of Wall street, have failed.

The Concord Savings Bank has closed its doors.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The Mercantile Trust Bank is in the hands of an Examiner. The capital is impaired. The business was confined to loans on western real estate.

FISH CULTURE.

Arrival of California Salmon Eggs at Geneva Lake.

GENEVA LAKE, Wis., Oct. 14.—A consignment of 250,000 California salmon eggs from the Government hatchery on the McCloud river, California, arrived here on Saturday evening in charge of Bart B. Scott, of the Wisconsin fish hatcheries, and were placed in the Hon. N. K. Fairbank's hatching-house. This establishment is in charge of F. L. Welsher, son of the well-known expert, H. W. Welsher, Superintendent of the Wisconsin fish-hatcheries, and the eggs were expected to hatch in about thirty days. This is the Illinois quota, and, as this State has no hatchery, State Fish-Commissioner Fairbank placed them in his private fish-house.

NEW COMPLICATIONS.

Further Reports Concerning the Difficulties in the East.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—A Vienna dispatch says new complications have arisen. It is reported that Montenegro, and Roumania refuse to return their Turkish prisoners until they receive their allotted territory, and monetary compensation respectively.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—A dispatch from Vienna states that the stoppage of the Russians in the neighborhood of Constantinople seems to have caused some stir among the Cabinets, though none of them has made any direct representation.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—A correspondent at Vienna says the Porte is adopting an apologetic tone to Austria relative to its recent note.

H. A. PATTERSON, P. M.

A FATHER OF INFLATION.

How He Upset a Kingdom and Lost
His Head, as He Deserved.

Rochester, New York, Democrat.

Baron Goerz, of Sweden, a Swede of the eighteenth century, proposed to make the government of King Charles XII, immensely rich at one bold stroke. He wrote a pamphlet on "The True Money of a Civilized Country," which created a considerable stir in the financial circles of these times. In short, Goerz was the ante-type of the American irredeemable paper money advocates. When King Frederick William I, of Prussia, read his treatise, he remarked: "The man who wrote this is a dangerous lunatic." Charles XII, however, being blinded by debt, and ignorant of the laws of finance, was captivated by the idea, and made Goerz his finance minister, and that worthy scoundrel—for he had an exceedingly unsavory social reputation—once abolished the policy of the realm, cut off the privileges and prerogatives of the nobility, coqueted with the peasantry and issued 10,000 blue and green paper dollars, bearing the following inscription: "Royal Swedish Currency."

"He who refuses to take the bill at its full value will suffer death." The panacea "worked like a charm." The country was scoured for gold and silver, and after intimidating bankers, and beheading the ob-streperous Goerz finally scraped together

for the royal treasury $80,000.

The King was in high spirits. He resumed his extravagances and even prepared to engage in war. But prices went up; industry became debauched; the aristocracy was restless under the Government's fierce expansion upon their gold and silver; and after intimidating bankers, and beheading the ob-

streperous Goerz finally scraped together

for the royal treasury $80,000.

MR. WILLIAMS' APPOINTMENTS

Hon. C. G. Williams will address the people at the following times and places: Burlington, October 15. Union Grove, October 16. Wheatland, October 17. Bristol, October 18. Newark, October 21. Emerald Grove, October 22. Sharon, October 23. Magnolia, October 25. Janesville, October 26.

MILTON.

—There having been much written hereto in regard to the difficulty between the Seventh Day Baptist churches of Milton and Milton Junction, and the matter having been finally adjudicated by the Seventh Day Baptists' General Conference at its late session in New Jersey, we have decided, in response to the request of many of our citizens who do not have an opportunity to read the denominational organ, to publish the report of the committee and action of the conference thereon, as it appears in the official record of the body. The gentlemen composing the committee are among the ablest in the denomination, three of the number being Doctors of Divinity, and their report was adopted by the unanimous vote of the conference.

The Committee to which was referred the recommendations of the Conference made at its session in 1876, in Walworth, Wisconsin, to brethren within the bounds of the Milton Seventh Day Baptist churches, together with the petition of brethren at Milton Junction to be admitted as a church to this Conference, after careful and prayerful consideration of the matter referred to them, have unanimously agreed upon the report respectively submitted:

It is the opinion of your Committee that the brethren of the Rock River Church have not complied with the recommendation of the Conference in that they have not joined in establishing a church at Milton Junction, nor proceeded with their enterprise.

33. That the members of the Milton Junction church were not justifiable in attempting to organize a church while yet members of the Milton church, not having asked or received letters of dismissal for that purpose from the church to which they belonged.

34. That the Milton church were justifiable regarding the members who had thus attempted to organize a church as in disorder against the righteous authority and good order of the church.

4th. But since the brethren at Milton Junction acknowledge their error in attempting to organize a church without asking or receiving letters from the church to which they belonged, and believing they have intended to comply with the recommendations of the Conference, according to their understanding of them; and that the articles of faith they have adopted, which are herewith submitted, are in accordance with the faith and practice of the Seventh Day Baptist denomination, we recommend that their petition to be admitted to this Conference be granted, and that this action be final on the part of the Conference, and that all controversy on the subject cease.

N. V. HULL, S. D. DAVIS, GEO. TOMLINSON, COM. T. R. WILLIAMS, D. E. MAXON,

—Paintmaster Sweet has repaired the much talked of slate at the east end of College street, and made some needed repairs on stucco and side-walks elsewhere in his "beam." "Better late than never."

—The excitement incident to the political campaign seems to increase in intensity and the advocates of honest money are remarkably well-posted, and give good reasons for the faith that's in 'em.

—Dr. W. H. Borden, of this village, candidate for the Assembly in this District, on the triplatform ticket, made his appearance on the stump at Johnston's, on the evening of the 8th inst. "Judge" Obourn accompanied the Doctor.

Dennis Burdick, Sr., and wife, of Westerly, Rhode Island, are in town visiting their nephews, Messrs Dennis and Stillman Burdick. The old gentleman is much pleased with the West, the present visit being his first, and says that were he not well along in the journey of life he would make Wisconsin his home.

—W. E. Burdick arrived in town on the 8th inst. from Milwaukee.

—No resident of Wisconsin ever saw the trees as green in the month of October as they are the present season, and traveling men say that the foliage in the States of Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri and Illinois shows the autumn hue more than it does in our State, and that the trees in Milton are greener than at any other point on the St. Paul road.

—The side walk in front of the "block" needs repairing very badly, and if it is not done soon some body will take a trip that will make Milton howl and hurt the third commandment.

Owen Spalding was in town last week. He has resigned his agency at Gill's Landing and has gone in to the grocery business at Appleton. He has our best wishes for success.

—The pumpkin harvest is an ignoble failure this season, and it is doubtful if this will be a land flowing with pumpkin pies this winter.

—The large maple in front of the Polly Goode place have been subjected to an extensive pruning process. We can't say that the pruning enhances the appearance of the trees, but it may suit the persons most interested.

—A botanical curiosity was exhibited here last week known as Smilax herbacea, or Carrion flower. This weed hangs full of clusters of berries when ripe, that are three inches in diameter and present a peculiar appearance. It was the first specimen many that of our citizens ever saw.

It grew in the woods near Stor's lake, east of this village, and was found by Thomas Hawkins.

—Ezra Crandall returned from his visit to New York and New Jersey last Wednesday. His brother-in-law, George Smith, of Nile, New York, accompanied him home.

—Corn husking began last week and the crop will be an immense one and of unexceptionable quality.

—Mr. Misger, of the Cross Spring Co., is not as lame as he was. His wife and children arrived from Hornellsburg, N. Y., last Friday and are domiciled at the Milton house.

—Some weeks since Asa Weaver lost a pocket book containing $50 in money and valuable notes. Last Saturday Charley Fink found the lost wallet under some weeds at the east end of the depot. The wallet had lain there for a long time and was badly decayed.

—Mr. Lane has the nobbiest run of millstones that we ever saw in motion. The whole outfit for flouring purposes is first class, and he will begin the manufacture of flour this week.

—Rev. I. S. Edredge, the new pastor of the Methodist church, preached his introductory sermon, Sunday morning. The reverend gentleman will move his family into the parsonage this week. In behalf of our citizens we extend a cordial welcome.

—The recently elected State Treasurer of Colorado, Hon. Nathan S. Culver, M. D., was formerly a resident of this village and a student of Milton College, therefore our citizens have a double cause for rejoicing over the signal victory achieved by the Republicans of the Centennial state on the 1st instant. We tender Treasurer Culver the hearty congratulations and best wishes of his Milton acquaintances, neighbors and friends, who are more than pleased to see him honored by the honest money voters of Colorado.

—Milton House arrivals: E. F. Cory, James Clough, Fulton; Sam Kussell, Milwaukee; W. J. Wrighsworth and wife, Milwaukee; W. L. Cobos, White-water; L. Patug, Lemars, Iowa; H. F. Thompson, Milwaukee; H. F. Martin, Whitewater; Benj. Millard, Iowa, (90 years of age); H. Trischell, Brothhead; H. Pond, Chicago; H. L. Brington, Milwaukee; P. H. Lark, Fort Atkinson; L. Wyler, Janesville.

—Tom Earle made his College chidmas a brief visit last Sunday. He has recently returned from Minnesota.

—Clerk of the Court Baldwin shot hands with his Milton friends last Sunday.

—E. B. Burdick went to Monroe as a witness in the Ohms murder case. Mr. Burdick will testify that himself, not Ohms, attempted to buy cartridges of the Judge.

—Last Sunday evening as Postmaster Green was crossing the public square, he noticed an unusually bright light streaming out from the windows of Mr. Kingsley's house. He was satisfied that something was wrong and ran over to the house. He effected an entrance and found a large kerosene lamp on fire, which he promptly grabbed and threw out of doors, thus preventing what might have been a serious conflagration. Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley went out calling and left the lamp burning, but did not blame Mr. Green for effecting a forcible entry into their house.

CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEFLETS.

-Moist.
-Fix the sidewalks.
-Make ready for winter.
-Brighter prospects for trade.
-Miss Belle Hume, of Oshkosh, is visiting her friends in this city.

The street lamps look greatly improved by being cleaned and painted.

Rev. L. N. Wheeler and family left today for Fond du Lac, where they will now reside.

Miss Minnie Hern, of Minneapolis, a niece of J. D. King, is visiting her friends in this city.

Will Lake spent last night in this city and departed again to-day for Iowa. He reports trade on the road as lively.

E. B. Saunders, has decided to give up the practice of law here, and will go to West Hallock, Illinois, where his parents reside.

—Chunkiro Tea comes from a Mandarin's estate in the Ping Lney District, China. A choice tea; Peterson has it People's Tea Company, 41 East Milwaukee street, Opera house block.

—McKey & Bro.'s grand opening of fall styles in millinery will take place next Thursday evening. The display of pattern bonnets, stylish fall novelties, and fashionable fabrics will surpass anything ever seen in this city.

—One of our doctors reports a severe case of fever which in the South would be termed yellow fever without any doubt. The patient had the black vomit to an alarming extent, and for two days the patient was as yellow as saffron.

The Rockford Rifles, one of the best drilled companies in Illinois, will be in Beloit this evening and show up in an exhibition drill. A number of Janesville's militiamen expect to drive down to see how the boys handle their muskets.

Snyder, the Clinton inn-keeper, who was arrested for selling liquor without a license, has been held to the Circuit Court by Court Commissioner Patten, the bail being fixed at $150. Three other charges of a like nature are lodged against him, but the cases have been continued until the latter part of this week.

A boy named Dermody complains that as he was walking along the street near the Harris Works Sunday night, a man came around the corner, and without word or warning threw some kind of acid in his face burning it somewhat, but fortunately doing no serious injury. Who the man is and what could have been his object in thus doing are mysteries which are still unsolved. The boy was almost blinded by the stuff thus thrown upon him, and before he could recover himself the man had disappeared and has not yet turned up.

—One of our Hibernian friends stepped into a doctor's office the other day to get some medicine to cure some ailment which was threatening to make him down sick. The doctor put him up some medicine, and handing him the bottle said "Now, sir, I guess that will fix you all right. If you don't feel better after taking that, come back again, and I'll give you something that will make you all right." The sick man laid down the bottle in disgust, saying, "Be jokers, I'll just take that other medicine you spoke of now, and not fool any with this 'ere bottle."

—Whenever there is anything of interest transpiring in the police court there is always to be found in the audience a large number of boys of tender years, who eagerly drink in the criminal sensationalism. No one can doubt but that it is a bad thing for the boys, and some means should be taken to stop it. The parents of the lads should see to it that they are in school instead of wasting their time and demoralizing their tastes by lounging about, and if the parents do not attend to their own offspring, then the officers should take some steps to clean the boys out. The practice is steadily growing, and it needs an argument to establish the hurtfulness which thus results to all concerned.

—Justice Balch had an interesting goose trial on hand yesterday afternoon which was so engrossing that it kept him on the bench till a late hour. One of the Monterey manufacturers was so annoyed with these feathered bipeds that he built a pound of his own, captured wandering geese, and there kept them imprisoned until the owners would pay a fine of ten cents each. One owner wouldn't pay up, and proceeded to reprove his pets. A jury was chosen, witnesses were called, examined, and cross examined, and then followed a series of most weighty arguments on the part of the attorneys. One of the chief points in dispute was whether the goose was an animal, and whether it could be impounded when estrayed. Blackstone was called out, and by him it was proved that ducks, geese, and their kind were fowl, and must not be shut up, and the swan alone could be thus impounded because it was the royal bird, and of enough value to be thus treated. The attorney on the other hand gravely overruled Blackstone, and insisted that the law must be applied differently in different countries, and that in Monterey the goose was the "royal" bird, and was therefore liable to be impounded.

The jury after having retired for a suitable length of time, decided that the geese should be free. The geese once saved Rome, and in the hope that they would save Monterey, they should be allowed to wander freely.

—THE WEATHER. The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 57 degrees above and at 2 o'clock this afternoon at 67 degrees above. A clear day. One year ago at correspond ing hours the thermometer stood at 61 degrees and 69 degrees above.

The indications to-day are: For the upper lake region, upper Mississippi, and lower Missouri valleys, southwest shifting to cooler northwest winds, falling followed by rising barometer, partly cloudy weather, occasional rains, followed in the western portions by falling barometer, and warm southerly winds.

CITY CRUMBS.

Gathered From the Aldermanic Table.

Interesting Items Furnished by the City Fathers.

There was a regular meeting of the Common Council last evening, presided over by his Honor the Mayor, and attended by all the members except Aldermen Church and Hutchinson.

Ald. Fitzgibbon, in behalf of the Committee to whom was referred the petition of Fourth ward citizens for the opening of a street, asked for further time, which was granted.

Ald. Davies presented an order for the planting of a lamp-post on the south side of the railroad bridge and westside of River street. Referred.

Ald. Vankirk presented a like order for a lamp-post at the intersection of North Main and North Third street, and one on Milton Avenue in front of the Taylor estate. Referred.

Mayor Norcross stated that it was necessary for the Council to designate polling places for the approaching election, and the Council by vote designated the following places:

First Ward—West Side engine house.
Second Ward—Water Witch engine house.
Third Ward—Shop adjoining Lawrence & Atwood's hardware store on the North.
Fourth Ward—Field's shop, West end Court street bridge.

Fifth Ward—C. & N. W. freight depot. The Board of Education presented the resignation of Mr. Lewis Hunt, as School Commissioner from the First ward.

Ald. Lawrence moved that the Council proceed to ballot to fill the vacancy. Adopted—and Ald. Davies and Wilcox were appointed tellers.

The ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes.....
Thomas T. Croft received..... and was declared duly elected.

Ald. Lawrence from the Finance Committee, reported in favor of allowing sundry bills against the various funds, which was concurred in.

Thomas Tomlin was allowed $100 on his contract for graveling Milton avenue.

Mr. H. H. Blanchard obtained permission to present the claim of Mary Clement, widow of B. N. Clement, but before he had fairly commenced his remarks, he was choked off by the Council, and his papers went to the Judiciary Committee without being read.

On an inquiry from Ald. Davies the Mayor stated that the papers for the abatement of the nuisance on the Hyatt house corner were made out and would be served and the ordinance enforced.

Ald. Davies moved that Mr. Bennett be notified that the city has no further need of his pound.

Ald. McKinney moved that further consideration of that motion be postponed until the next meeting. Adopted.

Ayes—Ald. Joyce, McKinney, Vankirk, Wilcox—4.

Noes—Ald. Davies, Fitzgibbon, Hemming—3.

Ald. Fitzgibbon moved that the Pound Master be discharged.

On motion of Ald. McKinney this motion was also laid over until the next meeting.

Ald. Fitzgibbon, from the Gas Committee, reported in favor of erecting a gas lamp on River street, near the railroad bridge, in accordance with the order of Ald. Davies. Adopted.

Ald. McKinney, from the park committee, called the attention of the Council to the necessity of making another walk in the park, at the north end, but no action was taken.

The special committee to consider the propriety of purchasing teams for the fire department, were instructed to report at the next meeting.

On motion of Ald. Wilcox the Council reconsidered its vote refusing to grant a license to Mr. Churchill, and after some little sparring over the matter a license was granted!

Mr. John W. Allen was heard in relation to the walks in the parks.

Mr. O'Rourke was listened to in a statement of the way he claimed work was being done in the second ward.

The Council adjourned.

ANOTHER CAPTURE.

The Third Member of the Gang of the Supposed Burglars Locked in Jail.

The burglary committed at Lawrence & Atwood's store is being most shrewdly and ably worked up by Marshal Keating. Part of the plunder has been recovered and three of the supposed burglars captured, the third one being a Beloit boy named Edward McCavitt. He was arrested in Beloit last night, and brought to this city, Officer Robinson accompanying him.

This morning he appeared before Justice Prichard, and the examination was continued until to-morrow afternoon, when the other two will also be brought up.

McCavitt is a smooth-faced young man, about eighteen, whose parents live in Beloit. He has already served four years in the Reform School, and was released from there about eighteen months ago.

The officers are confident that there is enough evidence accumulated to send the trio over the road.

APPLETON'S JOURNAL.

The November number of Appleton's Journal is upon our table, and contains even more than its usual amount of interest and instruction. S. G. W. Benjamin gives a second paper on "The Multitudinous Seas." "The Dialects of our Country," is the subject of a paper from the pen of the late Rev. N. C. Burt, D. D. Frank Browne gives a paper concerning the record of the lake dwellers.

"Madame Christophe," is a tale of the St. Lawrence by Annie Bothwell. Ernest Ingalls tells some very interesting facts concerning clams. Julian Hawthorne contributes "A New Canterbury Pilgrim age." J. Murphy has a paper on "The Jumping Procession in Luxembourg." Sidney Laufer, Henry Abbey and others contribute poems, and the feast of fat things is made complete by the editor's table and review of the books of the day.

OBITUARY.

MRS. JOHN B. CARLE.

Mrs. John B. Carle is dead. The sad tidings were not unexpected, though her illness has been of short duration. Two weeks ago last Thursday she was taken with a severe attack of bilious fever, and in spite of the most tender nursing and most skillful care, the disease refused to loose its deadly grasp, and last night about 8 o'clock death came to her relief.

Mrs. Carle was of Scottish birth, being born on one of the Shetland Islands, in 1825, her maiden name being Robena Mout. She came to this country with her parents in 1845, and settled in Harmony where she resided until 1857, when she was married to Mr. John B. Carle, and went to her new home on his farm in the town of Janesville. About ten years ago Mr. and Mrs. Carle took up their residence within the city limits, and have continued to reside here since.

Mrs. Carle leaves one child, Miss Jennie Carle. Her step-sons and their families were no less strongly attached to her than if they were of her own flesh and blood, and to them the blow is indeed a heavy one. She also leaves one brother, Mr. James Mout, and three sisters, Miss Mary Mout, Mrs. Thomas Jameson, and Mrs. David Jeffries.

Mrs. Carle leaves one child, Miss Jennie Carle. Her step-sons and their families were no less strongly attached to her than if they were of her own flesh and blood, and to them the blow is indeed a heavy one. She also leaves one brother, Mr. James Mout, and three sisters, Miss Mary Mout, Mrs. Thomas Jameson, and Mrs. David Jeffries.

In this community where Mrs. Carle has been so widely known, her death is felt as a loss to all. She was a grand Christian woman, whom all loved and respected. Her marked ability, and her wise counsel combined with motherly tenderness and warmth of affection, have caused her to wield a large influence, and she has ever wielded it for the right. The loss to the Court Street Methodist church, to which she belonged, is a great one, but it is not confined to family or to church. The whole community whom she has blessed by her pure life and neighborly kindness, feel that the loss is theirs also. The bereaved relatives will receive the heartfelt sympathy among their large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Death had for her no terrors, and when she realized that she must go hence, she met the change calmly, and with sweet resignation. Her mental powers were unclouded, and her parting words to her family will ever be cherished by them as a rich legacy.

The funeral services will be held at the residence, corner of Linn and North street in the Fifth ward, next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

There being a report, which designing persons have been zealously circulating, that I expected to secure the position of under-Sheriff, provided that Comstock was elected I deem it simple justice to say that I never have had any such aspirations, have never sought or been promised any preferment whatever, and that the story is as void of any foundation of fact, as is the platform of the party, which is circulating this report.

THE NEW DRUG STORE.

The new drug store of Prentiss & Evans, nearly opposite the postoffice, was thrown open to the public to-day. It presents a very attractive appearance indeed, everything being neat and new, and arranged with great taste. The marble floor, elegant shelvings, and counters, together with the happy way in which the goods are displayed make the store strikingly pleasing. These young men are thoroughly posted in their business, and will give to it their personal attention, and the ability and energy which they possess will bring to them the success which they so well merit. Their stock is a well-chosen one, and embraces everything necessary to meet all the demands of the public in that line, and both of them being experienced prescription clerks, the public may rest assured that all wants and wishes will be properly and promptly attended to.

The special committee to consider the propriety of purchasing teams for the fire department, were instructed to report at the next meeting.

On motion of Ald. Wilcox the Council reconsidered its vote refusing to grant a license to Mr. Churchill, and after some little sparring over the matter a license was granted!

Mr. John W. Allen was heard in relation to the walks in the parks.

Mr. O'Rourke was listened to in a statement of the way he claimed work was being done in the second ward.

The Council adjourned.

BEST OF THE REACH OF HUMAN SKILL.

Is the power to restore the hair to bald heads when the bulbs at the roots are destroyed by age or disease; but there are doubtless many persons becoming bald, whose hair by careful attention might be restored to its original luxuriance and beauty. Parker's Hair Balsam is an elegant preparation, designed to meet the public want for a harmless hair dressing and restorative. It acts like magic, commencing at the very roots, removes Dandruff and all humor from the scalp, and never fails to restore gray or faded hair to the original color, and the soft, rich and glossy appearance of youth. By its occasional use falling of the hair is immediately checked, and a luxuriant and beautiful growth of young hair induced. The exquisite perfume and the purity of its composition are highly appreciated, and as it is not a dye and does not stain the skin or clothing, it is a growing favorite of the toilet table everywhere. Buy a bottle from your druggist A. J. Robert's, Janesville, Wis., and test its merits. Jy30deodwly-3
